

Law or Act of Assembly; But if the two Houses should pass any Bill, which may be a perpetual Law for limiting and settling either such Fees as are ascertained by the several Regulations now in Force, or any other Table of fees to be agreed on by the two Houses; You may and are hereby permitted to give your consent to such Bill; or if any Fee or Fees in the present Regulation should appear to you, and the Council of State, to be too large or Exorbitant or otherwise improper, You are hereby directed and Impowered by and with the Advice and Consent of the said Council, to make such Abatement or Alteration therein as may be expedient and proper.

10. As no Person to be employed as an Agent here for the Transactions of any Affairs for the real Benefit of the Province can be so nearly interested or more inclinable to manage the same than my self (unless at any time the Province should be inclinable to make my Beloved Uncle The Honourable Cecilius Calvert Esq. their Agent); Therefore you shall not pass any Bill or Bills whatsoever which may be offered to you for that Purpose, or give the least countenance there to, but on the contrary by every advisable means discourage the same; unless it be in favour of my beloved Uncle, in which case you are hereby directed and required to promote and encourage the same.

11. If any doubt should arise on the words of an Act of Assembly now in force Entituled an Act ascertaining the Gauge and Fare of Tobacco Hogsheads and to