

29.) You shall not commit the care of those Employments unto Persons much concerned in Trade who may be apt to be thereby by asid from their respective Dutys.

30.) You shall take care that each of the Persons appointed by You to the said Employments of Naval Officers and Collectors of the Dutys on Tobacco and Tonnage on Ships, be sworn to Execute faithfully and diligently their respective offices in their own Persons, not by Deputys, unless in cases of absolute necessity, and that those Deputys be then likewise sworn to be faithfull and diligent in the Execution of their respective Offices; and that each of the said Officers or their Deputys be required accordingly to give their attendance at such certain times and places as you with the Advice of our said Council shall direct.

31.) You are not to permit any clause whatsoever to be inserted in any Law for levying money or the value of money whereby the same shall not be made liable to be accounted for unto me here in England.

32.) You are to take care, that Fair Books of Accounts of all Receipts and payments of all such money be duly kept and the Truth thereof attested upon Oath, and that the said Book be transmitted every half year or oftner to me or our Secretary residing in
