

Twenty per Cent Discount heretofore given on the Quit Rents farmed; and he is to allow the Receivers of the other Quit Rents after the Rate of Ten per Cent 'as usual; but he is To do the best he can herein, and take such Security from the said Farmers, as You, with our Attorney General for the time being, and he, shall approve of. And as this Transaction is an Affair of the greatest consequence to me, the Leases of my Quit Rents to the present Farmers as far as inform'd being to expire within a Year, I recommend it to your most serious attention.

9.) You are with the Advice of My Agent and Receiver General aforesaid to lett my several manors and Reserve Lands for the best improved Rents &c. and to appoint such Stewards and other Officers for the same as shall be thought convenient, and you are to take care that those you so appoint are such as are most knowing in the Improvements of my said Mannors, and when you have determined on the Conditions that each respective manor or my said Reserve Lands shall be lett at; You are to make the same known to the Stewards and other Officers, and direct them to inform, either in a Publick or Private manner, all Persons thereof who are willing to become Tenants to me on the said conditions. And you shall with the advice aforesaid allow such Gratuities to the said Stewards and Officers of my said Mannors and Reserve Lands as shall be judged adequate to each of their Service.

80.) My Agent and Receiver General for the time