

Sir

Baltimore 14th September 1807

Much honored by the appointment of Aid to the Commander in Chief, it should have been my duty to meet it. but the Troop of which I am Commandant have thought I could not with propriety hold both offices, & have requested me to continue with them. I am induced to comply with their wishes, you will be good enough therefore to accept my resignation of aid

With greatest Esteem

Your Obedt Servt

J. Smith

His Excellency Robert Wright Esquire
