

but could not for want of power to defend themselves any longer keep themselves ^{that} in having a publick that they had done, the Indians had Burned them a Mill which they were forced to pass by for the present till they should be better able to avenge themselves of the injury that the Governour had of the Sandhooke did send for the names of those Indians that had committed the aforesaid murder, and demanded of them the Reason why they did it Answer was made that it was done by a Company of Vagabond Rogues that Delighted in mischief and Run from Nation to Nation which if they could Catch they would deliver them up to Justice but that since they had done it they were fled

Also H.H. from fol 108. to 110

