

Commission and Letter for the Queen keeping enjoying and governing of the said Islands plantations and People in other Admitt. of Lands and immunities in those parts and likewise that his Majesty would refer the Examination of the said Wrongs and Injuries to such as his Majesty should think fit as by the said Petition more at large appears for as much as his Majesty was pleased at New Market the 20 of February 1637 to refer the consideration of the Petitioners Request unto the Lord Arch Bishop of Canterbury the Lord Keeper the Lord Privy Seal and any other the Commissioners for Plantations who should be near at hand and whom they please to call and withall to advise with Mr Attorney General for the preparing and setting the Grant desired for his Majestys Signature and to examine the Wrongs complained of and Certify his Majesty what they thought fit to be done for Redress thereof

Whereupon all Parties attending their Lordships this day with their Council learned and being fully heard the said Commission and Letter being likewise read it appeared Clear by to their Lordships and was Confessed by the said Cleyborn himself then present that the said Isle of Kent is within the Bounds and Limits of the Lord Baltimores Patent & that the said Captain Cleyborns Commission as it likewise appeared was only a License under the signet of Scotland to trade with the Indians of America in such places where the Sole Trade had not formerly been Granted by his Majesty to any other which Commission their Lordships declared did not extend nor Give any warrant to the said Cleyborn or any other nor had they any right or Title thereby to the said Island of Kent or to plant or trade there nor in any other parts or places with the Indians or Salvages within the Precincts of the Lord Baltimores Patent and their Lordships did likewise declare that the aforesaid Letter under his Maj^{estys}
