

3 For restoring as much as you can of the Arms and other Goods lost or left in our last March upon them at least the two field pieces

4 For some present to the Governour or any other Condition as you shall think fit for the honour safety and Advantage of the Colony or our Confederates and namely the Virginians

5 The better to endeavour peace to them you may use such means as you shall think fit for the Honour safety and Advantage of the Colony or our Confederates and namely the Virginians

6 The better to endeavour peace to them you may use such means as you shall think fit for the Honour safety and Advantage of the Colony or our Confederates and namely the Virginians

7 If you shall not think best to treat or trade with them you are to use all lawful and discreet means you can to pillage or take them or (if it shall seem best) to kill them and to break of all League and treaty between them and our Confederates and to keep your Confederates and specially such as you shall note most bold and Active that way from trading or treating with the Common Enemy afore or against our liking or consent and the said ways without the Authority or Consent of their Queen Residing here

8 Lastly in all matters of importance which shall concern the execution of your Commission or of these instructions in matters left to your discretion you are to advise with Thomas Girard and James Neale Esq^r and Councillors of the Province Thomas Greene and Gilbert Fenwick Esq^r Thomas Baldrige Nathan Pope and John Rice Planters or two of them whereof the said Thomas Girard to be one and the said James Neale to be another if they or either of them be there to be advised with

18 June 1644

Signed John Sewger