

Vacant of, alias to go upon the West Shore over against Comins Plantation and to land 1/2 And to hollow at House and secure some One and bring him away
 2 All proper Island to stay until night discovering a fore hand if any vessel be Putting against the Southern part of Kent and if there be any thereabouts or in any other part to keep out of Comins of all vessels and to make for some plantation further up the Island where you shall have Reason to think it fittest to put ashore both for safety and intelligence and not to go on Shoar at Kent point or thereabouts until you have had information of the state of the Island from some weaker plantation as afore

3 To enquire whether Captain Cleyborn or any other have made any disturbance of the peace or committed any Outrage upon the Island and to learn what force he did it with and what strength he is of there at sea or Shoar and what his intents further be & how long he means to stay

4 To deliver my Letter to C. Brent and bring an answer if you may

Commission / 1 January to Captain William Beaumont Esq to be Commander of Kent with all Authority Civil and Criminal which heretofore to any Commander hath belonged and in absence to deput such person as he shall think fit and John Wyatt Robert Vaughan Gent John Abbot Will^m Cox Commissioners

Jan^{ry} 1st Proclamation to be published upon Isle of Kent to prohibit trade till Ships have been at St Marys &c and to declare Captain W^m Cleyborn Esq & W^m Tompson Planter to be Enemies of the Province and to prohibit all intelligence or Correspondence with them or Agents at Sevil &c as of File