

to you that you will give him satisfaction for some things which were left and some things which are in your hands & that he might have such conditions as you and he subscribed to I told him that he need not doubt but you would give him all satisfaction but he was so earnest with me to write that I could not deny him to speak to you to do him Justice the particulars of his demands I know not but shall desire you to satisfy him in what is justly due to him this is all at present

Calvert Esq^r Governor of Maryland These

Honoured Sir

My Occasions to Appomattock induced me Once more to send over to desire those dues that are justly owing to me from you for my Salary in that unhappy service Viz^t half the Custom half Rents and satisfaction for Adeloough Horse you know it is mine even by your promise when you Offered me the Exchange of your Filley at Annapoan I satisfied Sir William Berkeley in this Cause and procured his Letter which if it prevail not hath left me to my Remedy in the Interim I shall only desire a fair answer and that same and Suggested Rumours shall ^{altogether false} not prejudice my right I request your Answer and rest

Chicacone the 18th June 1646 Yours if you please Edward Hill
