

103

July the 28th 1647

Ordered this day by the Governor that Mr. Bretton Register of the Court shall have power in case of Absence of the Governor or other urgent Occasions to sign Writts or Warrants under the Governours name

August 26th 1647

William Bretton Gent Clerk of the Court being for the present sick and not able to attend the place I have thought fit during his Absence to appoint Robert Clark Gent to execute the places and have accordingly given him his Oath to that purpose

Thomas Greener

September 15th 1647

It is this day Ordered by the Governor that this Oath following be administered to all persons that have had any hand in the late Rebellion here when ever they shall come into the Province and that the Capt. or Commander present of the Fort is hereby Authoured and required to administer the said Oath to all such persons coming in as of and further the said Captain or Commander shall take into his possession and keep in safe Custody within the Fort all such Arms and Ammunition as any of them shall bring with them at their coming into the Province and see them safe delivered unto them again when they shall depart the said Province and this as often as any of them shall come or go from hence

The Oath

You shall be true and faithful so long as you shall remain in this Province and as often as you shall Return into the same to the Right hon^{ble} the Lord Proprietary of this Province and his Heirs Lords Proprietarys of this Province and to his Governor Thomas Greener Esq and his lawful substitute or Successor Governor of the Province for the time being