

the whole Scutcheon being supported with a Fisherman on the one side and a plowman on the other standing upon a Scaut wherein is engraven the motto of our paternal Count of Arms viz. Haltu Maschi pade Temine near above the Scutcheon is engraven a Count's hat and over that a helmet with the Crest of our paternal Count of Arms on the Top of it which Crest is a Ducal Crown with two half Banners set upright in it Behind the said Scutcheon and Supporters is engraven a large mantle and this inscription is about that side of the Seal viz. Scuto bona voluntatis tunc Corona si nos the figure of the Seal is round and it is of the same Bigness that our said former Great Seal was and cut in Silver as the other was the impression of all which in wax is hereunto affixed it being somewhat different though but little from our said former Great Seal of the said Province and we do hereby declare the said new Seal to be from hence forwards our Great Seal of the said Province of Maryland and that we will have it so to be esteemed and reputed there till we or our heirs shall signify you or their pleasure to the contrary Given at Bath under our hand and our said new Great Seal of the said Province the 12th day of August in the 17th Year of our Dominion over the said Province of Maryland Anno Domini 1648

Commission for Muster Master General

Cecilius Lord Proprietor of to our trusty and well Beloved John Price we Considering that Arms without the knowledge of the use of them are fruitless and having an especial care of the safety and preservation of that our Province of Maryland have thought fit and necessary that the Inhabitants thereof should be from time to time exercised and trained in the use of Arms that so if Occasion should Require they may be