

Richard Garnett Junior doth acknowledge himselfe to owe unto ye Lord of Virginia one thousand weight of tobacco, & Richard Garnett Junior doth likewise acknowledge himselfe to owe unto ye said Lord of Virginia five hundred weight of tobacco; to be paid unto ye said Lord of Virginia in case ye said Richard Garnett Junior shall not make a true & just Inventory of all ye his goods and debts of John Abrian at ye time of his death within eight weekes & ye said ye said Secretary of ye Province before ye first day of may or in case ye shall not make a just & true Inventory of ye administration committed unto him within ye next ye nexts called; or in case ye shall not pay all ye debts of ye said John Abrian within eight weekes as far as ye goods or debts of ye said John Abrian w^{ch} shall come into ye hands shall extend.

Witness: 27th March 1630.
 John Linger Secretary.

ye under of Richard Garnett Junior

Richard
 Garnett

30th March 1630.

Memorandum that this day came before me Randall Rebell rooper, and James Cloughton mariner and acknowledge themselves to owe unto Sir Leonard Calbert Esq. the wife of William Vary of Virginia or his assigns, two thousand weight weight of good unrescutable white tobacco on the 10th of November next.
 And if they shall not so do, then they and either of them for themselves willing and granteth for themselves, their heirs executors and administrators that the said two thousand weight of tobacco be levied upon the lands goods and chattels of them the said Randall Rebell and James Cloughton, or either of them, notwithstanding they shall be found.

Witness our hands
 John Linger Secretary.

James Cloughton
 R R

30th March 1630.

Memorandum that this day, before me Christopher Martin tailor, and witness and witnesses James Cloughton mariner of all actions and suits whatsoever, to be present day.

Witness our hands
 John Linger Secretary.

Christopher Martin