Cyprian Thoroughgood against Thomas Cornwallis Esq. and administrator of the goods & chattels of Jerome Hawley late of St. Mariot Esq. in an action of debt; for that whereas the said Jerome Hawley did stand indebted unto the plaintiff in about seven pounds ten pence sterling, for wages for seven years and a half years service performed by the plaintiff unto the said Jerome Hawley within the Province; notwithstanding the said Thomas Cornwallis the said summe of seven pounds ten pence sterling, unto the plaintiff hath not yet paid, but hath refused to pay the same, although the said summe is due unto the plaintiff by the said Thomas Cornwallis.

By Thoroughgood

August 30

The said Thomas Cornwallis, defendant, doth certify that the said Jerome Hawley did stand indebted unto the plaintiff in about seven pounds ten pence sterling for wages as is alleged; & if he is ready to pay the same he will give up the plaintiff's name of country.

Tho: Cornwallis
