mar. 21. 163[9].

[illegible] a note of a warrt brought by Thomas Gerard Administrator of Justinian Snow, to distrayne a distresse of the Administrac; warranted by some [illegible] Court Rolle Snow was called to show what he had to say against the said warrt & why Distresse should not be taken according to the said warrt, who answered that he had nothing to say against the said warrt, but that he was ready to pay the debt, and desired the Court to consider of some reasonable time for the payment thereof, which the Court taking into consideration, and finding that the said Snow had formerly had divers warrts against him, and had not satisfied any of them, but had put the Court to much trouble & charge in sending for him, and that he had no estate in the Island but what was liable to the Administrac for the debts of the deceased, did therefore order that the said Snow should forthwith deliver unto the said Administrac all the estate of the said deceased which was in his hands, or in the hands of any other person to his use, to the end the same might be sold for the payment of the debts of the deceased, and the said Snow should not depart the Island without leave of the Court, and that he should be liable to answer any action that should be brought against him by any of the creditors of the deceased, and that the Administrac should not be liable to answer any action that should be brought against him by any of the creditors of the said Snow, for any of the estate of the said deceased which he had delivered unto the said Snow by order of this Court.
