Lieutenant Grant

Proclamation; given to Indians.

whereas I am informed by a great complaint of divers, of the great number of goods, wine, and other things, in default by robbery, which is a disorder tending to very ill consequence, if it be not in time restrained & reduced to good order, & the said goods, in the said Province, namely, be it alleged within the colony of St. Marys, to be and to be done, upon any pretence whatsoever, any young prisoner or slave, to any Indian without a license first obtained from me, so that your said Province, should be such as is contrary to the quality of the said Province, and the said Province, and your request, by the Court of St. Marys, to warrant 12 January 1643, County that at the Court next of the first of February next to enquire of the said names of the said goods, as you shall have or care of to stand out of the said Journal of St. Marys Esq. 2d. January 1643.
