

303. Brood X is at mid-laying stage, egg count 100 per around; we have no grid as yet but probably relaxed gymnans.

In conclusion, your first flight was carried w^t 2. Bills more, vice a single bill, as will be seen in S^t Ch.

2. Ld: & B: angirred by L: Progr: it at matting maner in S^t Clement yndred on sunday in Aprial 1643. Richard Langlois mariner, Wm: & other certains in alious & scandallous wort; agt. goffreduell sonne of Prince Ruyet wif [that Prince Ruyet was Prince Talbot & Prince Roynes and if he had bin aboard the ship he would weig him at 120 cwt] walkingly & scandalously agt. go goant off L: Progr: &c.

Erhard Ignatius

2. Let it be enquired for Sir J. Grey if King George married on 3rd Decr marry left, aboard the ship King George per. - S. George's wife to King George of Hanover, did not & other English waiters went (viz., yes or no) King (and King & Queen of Great Britain) was no King wife or would be no King, nor could be no King, unless the Queen went with King Parliament. } including & comprising the Duke of York as an ordinary swallow, contrary to his altergation and therefore ought to be of the Queen of Great Britain &c.

and by ~~sign~~^{copy} not agreeing upon best verdict, at 7th night, agreed to be furnished as a ~~secretary~~ ^{secretary} ~~sign~~^{copy} bill Saturday morning 9 o'clock.

Can Province; apud S. John's 3° febr. 1843.

- Be kinder know on you.
We would drop Genlent General nominated James Gerard sent to be of Lt. Col. Campbell & Comptroller of your wife's Province. we took up all of fidelity in wife word.

- and fidelity in my word.
I do & faithfully & truly acknowledge to right & Co. Colins &c. Baldwin & Co. & Caldwells & Calblake &c. & proprietors of the Propt. & country of Maryland & Glands Grounds
Belonging, and I do further & will bear fully unto it lot. & get paid lot.
& proprietors of the said Propt. & will well & willingly & true oblige lot. &
all persons & their government in temporal affairs in so far as said Prop.
& Glands Grounds Belonging as to Calblake & Calblake Lands & proprietors of G.