

January 3

whereby proved that the defendant is of sound mind & memory

In the case depending between <sup>Robt. Elton &</sup> Nicolas Jervis, and the said Jervis was <sup>examined by</sup> sworn: vizt Willm. Hamish      your Lee      Robt. Kedge Tho. Baldridge      willm. Marshall      Eng. Webb your Piffey      Jo. Guallet      your Webb Jo. Goldhead      willm. Braingart      your Webb you was your sworn for evidence.

 And the said Jervis found for the plaintiff, 100. l. s.
 And the said Jervis admitted that the said defendant according to the verdict 100. l. s.
 & 15 s. 6 d. more, acknowledged sup. 123.

whereby demanded of Robt. Elton 200. l. s., for s. more paid by the plaintiff to your sworn for the said of the said defendant. And the said defendant was obliged to perform: and 500. l. s. more for damage of the said defendant. And the said defendant in that more.

the said defendant has not yet been already judged by the Court.
 And the Court dismissed the said defendant without day.

whereby demanded of Thomas Dodd 215. l. s., due for goods sold and delivered. against the said Robt. Elton. And the said defendant is of the said defendant in the said the said defendant: and 10. s.

The said defendant being called to return it with the said defendant the day, returned as follows:

of whom were sworn and Robt. Langham, foreman      Francis Gray      Thomas Golden your Webb      George King      your Webb your Webb      your Webb      Robt. Webb your Webb      Arthur Webb      your Webb you were sworn in the former you shall likely inquire & be present make of such bills as shall given you in charge. And if you find so much probability of the said defendant's required of the said party may (without injury) be put to the said defendant for it, you shall present, Billa viva. and if not, you shall present.

 And you shall make the said defendant without partiality, favour, malice or any by-reward, but to the best of your conscience, according to your evidence. your own & the said defendant's counsel you shall be sworn to things spoken or done touching the said defendant. So help you God &c.