3. The Conditions to be demanded & stood upon by you (so much & so long as you shall think fitt) for the Cessation, are to be

1. for the Liberty, or Safety otherwise as you shall think fitt, that they shall not doe any act of Hostility upon us or our confederates (which as you shall think fitt to include, wherein the Palatine is not to be forgotten) nor shall come within the Territories of us or our confederates (according to such Bounds as you shall agree upon) During the Cessation unless it be 2 or 3 Messengers expairing ~~to and fro~~ for publique Treaty, & carrying the Safe-Conduct under the Lo: Seale, w^ch you may deliver to them to that end.

2. for Restitution for their ~~loss~~ detayning & Murthering of the Protestants in Ireland & Matters ~~and~~ thereunto ~~belonging~~ wherein especially to require a Returne of all the armed Labourers ~~at~~ in their hands, or to that number.

3. for restoring as much as you can of the armes & other goods lost or left in our Kingdome ~~upon~~ by the late Rebellion.

4. for some present to the Scots Gen^ll or our other conditions as you shall think fitt for the Honor, Safety or advantage of the Kingdome or our confederates, & namely the Virginians;

Your Power to endeare our peace to them, you may insinuate to them the Example of Both Kingdomes with whom they became Fellowsubjects Between whom & them we will be willing to come & live among them, & to aid them against their enemies, as now we doe the Protestants &c.

If you shall not think fitt to treate or treat with them you are to require all Subjects to withdraw all Trade & Intercourse between them & our confederates & Servants (such as you shall note most bold & unfit that we may Judge of their treating with the common Enemy before they agree) & to hinder that any Victuall Cattle Corne or other Supplies be carried by Land or Water to them without the authority of some of their Owne Residing here.
