

January

11.

Leonard Culbertson vs Job? Demand of 1000 for satisfaction of a writ of habeas corpus.

Job vs Job? All bonds you to prosecute at the Court in 1643 his action of habeas corpus against Giles Brent of 30000. to perform indent of Court again: you attach your goods & chattels of 1000 to be sold to value, to answer to the said writ, and to perform indent again: & you to be attached until you shall come to the said writ you said Giles Brent to be attached until you shall come to the said writ you shall return by writ.
To the Sheriff of Kent. J. L.

13 Culbertson vs Brent and Thomas Caple vs Job? Demand of 10000 value of 30000. to be sold to Job vs Job?

Culbertson vs Brent proved that the writ of habeas corpus for satisfaction of 10000 of 10000. to be sold to Job vs Job? Demand of 10000. to be sold to Job vs Job?
Brent refused to satisfy the writ of habeas corpus demanded or to give bonds for the writ: & you were ordered to attach according to the writ: & you to be attached according to the writ: & you to be attached according to the writ:
Giles Brent vs Brent proved as supra: & you were ordered to attach according to the writ:
you both parties.
attach. cum sita sub pincis, etc. 1. febr. 1643. signed J. L.

14 Job's reasonable demands of John Edwards 700. lib & rask due by bill.
attach. cum sita sub pincis, etc. 1. febr. 1643. to own beyond. J. L.

Culbertson vs Brent proved to the Judge Giles Brent vs Brent, that the Sheriff Edw Parker refused to serve the writ of habeas corpus: & you were ordered to attach said writ and your officer to be appointed. and you were ordered to attach of the said writ, directed to the Sheriff of Kent & Thomas Maynard & others in causa Egidij Brent, p. Sordarum.

17 Robt. Ellis vs Surgeon Demand of Nicolas Gouge 556. lib; due for the first administered to Jane Gouge wife of the deft. in the parish, in the County of July & August anno 1643.
warr: to Court 1. febr. 1643. sub pincis indij

Robt. Ellis vs Demand of James B. 250. lib & rask, due for surgery.
warr: to Court 1. febr. 1643.

Robt. Ellis vs Demand of John Dandy, 192. lib due for surgery.
warr: to Court 1. febr. 1643.