The Dep^t of Hen: Clay age 27 years or thereabouts taken 24th Dec^r. 1646.

This Dep^t sayeth, that being in talke wth George Manners at his house in Mary Land hee asked this Dep^t whether hee did or not see a popple in Commins Boate if hee went up to Kent on. Whereupon hee answered if hee looked not notice of any such thing. Then Manners withed him to speake to Commins to send home his popple of his stole from him. Hee hearing him say so asked him, how hee could take any man wth such a thing & bid him name I can^{not} what hee sayeth. Whereupon hee sayeth. I doe take him & will take him & will shewed him a wooden popple if hee was forced to beare wth all for want of his own popple. & further this Dep^t sayeth not.

Inter: from Rob^t Vaughan.

Hen: H. Clay.

Wth being moved by J^r Fore^r vobis. the Jury returned their Verdict on writing. Wee were first for 800th Tob. & cash & J^r de^r to ask him forgiveness in open Court. And the Court commended it to be carried for J^r iudgm^t.

James Walker dem^d of Nicolas Gwyther 44th Tob. due by Bills.

Upon J^r demand above^d Nee: Gwyther deff^r confessed of J^r Bills to be due. And the Court found accordingly.

Thomas Jackson p^r Attorney Nicolas Gwyther demandeth of Will^m. Bretton 240th Tob. & cash. due by Bills.

Upon J^r Fore^r demand Will^m. Bretton deff^r denyeth not J^r Bills, but alleageth that hee hath already satisfied it.

James Walker sayeth upon oath, that hee hath heard this: Jackson say, that hee had a law at M^r. Brettons, wth hee had of J^r M^r. Bretton.

And Will^m. Bretton deff^r deposeth, that hee sold it very low, & a shew to this: Jackson in full satisfaction of J^r very Bills.

And the Court dismissed J^r deff^r wth out day.

Upon J^r demand of Nicolas Carwin p^r Edw. Commins deff^r for 150th Tob. & cash. The deff^r denyeth J^r demand to be due, & sayeth that hee knows nothing of it. And J^r de^r being moved by J^r p^rts own oath, (the deff^r being disabled to make oath, in respect of a rash oath, formerly taken upon an oath, before Capt. Vaughan & moved by J^r P^r. Vaughan) The Court found for J^r p^rt as is demanded.
