

For Trade dated 16th of September 1656 hath for the good of the inhabitants of the said Province, condescended as is willing to do as followeth. In case the said People in opposition to his ^{Highness} Government there aforesaid shall forthwith give notice hereof from his ^{Highness} Govern^{or} or Secretary there for the time being, cease & forbear for the future from executing any act or power pertaining to Government & administering Justice within the said Province, And shall deliver to his ^{Highness} said Govern^{or} or Secretary aforesaid all records of the said Province now in their power. And also his ^{Highness} former Great Seal of the said Province, if it be to be found & preserved by them And shall for the future give all due obedience & submission to his ^{Highness} Government there according to his Patent of the said Province that then his Lordship doth promise

1. Imprimis, that no offences or differences which have arisen in Maryland upon or since the said Controversies there shall be questioned by his ^{Highness} Jurisdiction there in the said Province, but shall be left to be determined by such ways & means as His Highness & the Council shall direct.

2. Item that the said People in opposition as aforesaid shall have Patents from his ^{Highness} for such land in the said Province as they can claim due unto them by his said ^{Highness} conditions of plantation as in the same manner as with all the same rights as they might have had if the said Controversies & differences had not hapned any former Order Instruction Proclamations or any other thing proceeding from the said Lord Baltimore or any deriving any authority from him to the contrary hereof in any wise notwithstanding. Provided that they as every of them respectively who shall desire the same doe sue out their said Patents for the said lands within nine months after notice hereof given them by his ^{Highness} said Govern^{or} or Secretary there for the time being as that before they have their Patents they take the oath of fidelity there to his said Lordship with such alteration in it as is mentioned in the said Report of the Committee for Trade. And shall pay or satisfy his said Lordships Receiver generally there for his said ^{Highness} use all arrears of rent due to his said ^{Highness} from the time they first entered upon the said lands respectively. And due Fees to his said ^{Highness} Secretary Surveyors and other officers there as other inhabitants ought to doe according to his said ^{Highness} conditions of Plantation for the said Province.

3. Item that such of the said People in opposition as aforesaid who shall desire to remove themselves or estate from Maryland shall have free leave as a yeares time so to doe.

4. Lastly the Lord Baltimore doth promise that he will never give his assent to the repeal of a law established heretofore in Maryland by his Lordships consent as mentioned in the said

Report.