The Information of Peter Mayor touching the date of four English men killed in their Passage between Delaware Bay and the head of Chesapeake Bay by the Indians upon Wednesday in Easter Weeks last past.

That upon Friday in Easter Week being at the Sand Hook there came unto him one Hobby Yanson and told him that he feared some English men were killed by the Indians because finding his horse in the woods he saw an Indian pass by with a grey hat with Ribbons tied upon a back at his back that while afterwards the said Hobby Yanson showed him the Indian that had the hat at his back that by the assistance of Mr William Spottingsworth of New England and some other others he did apprehend the said Indian with his companion whom upon demand of Justice the Governor of the same place committed to Prison. Whereupon the rest of the Indians in the Towns fled and left one path behind them in which path he found an English red waistcoat with a hole in the back with, and a fawn bag, a bloody and an English pair of shoes. That one of these Prisoners were released that night to go and fetch their wives and that the next day the other were released, but upon what ground he knows not

And the said Peter Mayor further informed that demanding of the said Indian how he came by that hat
