

(190)

of even to their utmost bounds as their land ~~is already~~ ^{is already} ~~to the English~~ ^{to the English} to beate on their ancient plantations by the River side the English not being (as they informe mee) contented with what Land is already freely granted Doe still take up Land and Seats ~~themselves~~ ^{themselves} very nigh unto the said Indians whose stocks of Cattle and hogs ^{meane} doe and will yearly destroy their Corn fields by which they must of necessity come to famine they not knowing the way and means to fence in their home fields as the English doe will soon come to destruction Doe therefore hereby will and require all persons whatsoever Inhabitants of this Province to take notice hereof and resist from taking up any Land or Seat any Land (though formerly taken up) and surveyed by them) within three miles at the least of any of the said Indian habitations or plantations, ^{which} and my hand this 17th Day of November 1683

1683

January 6th Commission to Christopher & Abraham Berkeleys for Trade wth the Indians Dum Mutatis Mutandis ut est folio 161 to John Nuttall -
The said Christopher & Abraham Berkeleys Entered into recognizance to his Right Hon^{ble} the Lord Proprietary, &c. of 1000 Sterling

January last Commission to George Richardson for Trade wth the Indians Dum Mutatis Mutandis ut est folio 161 The said George Richardson entered into Bond to his Lord Proprietary of 1000 Sterling

February 1st Bills to Francis Armstrong ut est in dicto folio - Recognizance likewise given of 1000 Sterling to be in force one year after the date hereof

10th Commisⁿ issued from Lewistown General to John Eley, Stephen Horsey, William Thorny & John Pobbs Comm^s for that part of the Province newly located called the Eastern Shore Baring date the 10th day of February in the 32nd year of his Lordships Dominion &c. Anno Domini 1683

Commisⁿ est eadem uerbatim mutatis mutandis ut est folio Supra 163.