

which is thereby reserved to the Southward from the Northern Boundary of the Land granted by his Majesty of Great Brittain to the Lord Proprietary of Maryland by his Lordships of State more largely described but understanding the said Town of New Castle since his Majesty was most graciously pleased to send for it to dwell from the unscripted Towns of the Duke hath been protected under the Government of New York I could not help but require your Honour with the claims there made and to make the parents make in the name of the right Honble the Lord Proprietary of Maryland to the Town of New Castle and unto all the Islands and ^{lying} Inlets on the west to the main Channel between from the Bounds of Virginia unto the Latitude of forty Degrees Northward. So hoping your Honour will not be with Construction to my Proceedings but quietly suffer his Majesty's Subjects to be saved under that power to which most graciously been pleased to listen the Lord Baron of Baltimore I will

Your Honour most humble Servant
Thomas White

A Council of the right Honble the Lord Proprietary of this Province held at St. Marys the two and twentieth day of October One thousand six hundred & sixty nine
