

one thousand pounds and never paid him nor never would

That the said Walter Linn upon examination saith that being in Company with Mr Clifton and several others there was some discourse concerning Indian Kings but he did not hear the said Clifton speaking any such words as the King was before. That he answered him one thousand pounds & never paid him nor never would and that Mr Berry did threaten a suit to the King but what King this deponent knoweth not and that the said Clifton did say to the said Berry that he was unworthy Person

The witnesses swearing nothing in relation to the Occurrence it was therefore Ordered that the said James Clifton be released

At a Council of the right Honble the Lord Proprietary held at Saint Marys the 9 day of February 1609

Ordered that William Holland William Kaine John Peck & William Bradlet who brought over from Virginia and deluded here Thomas Gill William Puse and Morduck. Benson upon suspicion of much ungesse George servant to Mark Cordua be allowed them five hundred bushell of Stowds of Tobacco the same quantity be allowed the Chancellour of the publick Treasury paying the same to Captain Foster for the use of the said persons

Instructions from the right Honble the Lord and Proprietary of Maryland and Carolina
Lord Baltimore

To his Excellency Charles Calvert his Lordships Lieutenant of the Province of Maryland and Carolina and to his Ex cellency Secretary for the Government of the said Province