 versand James Whiston of the County of Somerset Justices by or severally to prove rights to Land your Conditional Warrants or Warrants for Land upon rights proved before you or either of you as a present of your proceedings in which affairs you were to transmit an account and a Copy of what you had so done by every convenient opportunity and for that several Complaints are made that Land hath by warrants by you or one of you Granted been surveyed and the Certificates already returned to my Office the persons concerned in the same desiring patents for the said Land but for that you . . . . . neg-ligently have neglected to send over an account of what rights have been so proved before you and what warrants Granted it being now upwards of six months since you had and Received the said Commission these are therefore in the name of the right Honble the Lord Proprietary to will & Command you and either of you that you speedily transmit over to my Office an Acc<sup>t</sup> of all your transactions by virtue of the said Commission and for the future wholly to forbear to act by virtue of the said Commission. Thereby revoking and superseding the same to all intents and purposes whatsoever of this you are
