Maryland

(Loco Regis)

By his Excellency the Captain General

Forasmuch as John Litchington Master of the Ship Mary of London when he made entry of the said Ship did procure Garrett Vanswearingen of the City of St Marys Town holder to be his security as well for his payment of the Impo sition as of the duties for such Tobacco as he should transport out of this Province as also to be bound with him according to the Act of Parliament for increase of Shipping and Naviga tion and for that John Dingley Partner with the said Garrett hath this day on the behalf of the said Garrett informed me that the said John Litchington hath absented himself from the said Ship and is gone into Virginia and as he supposes intends to have the Ship brought thitherafter him and so never intends to Clear in this Province whereby the said Garrett Vanswearingen may come to be liable to . . . . the penalty of the Bonds entered into by him only out of kindness to the said Litchington which Bonds are for twelve hundred pounds Sterling and should the whole penalty come to fall upon the said Garrett it would be to his utter ruin for the speedy provision whereof there are in the name of the right honorable the Lord Proprietary to will and Command you immediately to go on Board the said Ship and to seize and secure the said Dingley & them cause
