

ing for providing and getting sufficient and convenient provision of victuals and ammunition for all such forces of horse and foot as by his Lopp or his Lieutenant General shall be raised or levied within their severall and respective divisions for any March or expedition, against an Enemy And no such Officer Provider or Keeper as aforesaid shall imbezle or willingly spoyle or give a false account of any such victuals or ammunition, so provided or gathered together in any part or partell thereof to whom he is to make his account upon paine of suffering such punishment as the Generall Court Martiall shall thinke fit. Nor Officer or Soldier shall be a victualer in the army without consent and allowance of the Generall or of the Officer in Charge of the Regiment upon paine of being punished at discretion. —

36.

37. Nor Victualer or Seller of Beere Ale wine, or other Strong liquors belonging to the Army shall entertaine any Soldier in his house booth, Tent, or Hut after the warning peice, tatter or beate of Drumm at night or before the beating of the Drums in the morning, nor shall any Soldier (within that time) be any where but upon his Duty or in his quarters upon paine of punishment both to the Soldier and Entertainer at the discretion of a Court Martiall. —

38.

Those who are judges in his Lopp's Generall Court Martiall or in Regimentall Court Martialls shall hold the same rankes in those Courts as they doe in the Army. For Orders sake and they shall take an Oath for the due administration of justice according to these articles or (where these articles assigne no absolute punishment) according to their consciences the best of their understanding, and the Custome of Warre in like cases, and shall demean themselves Orderly in hearing of causes (as becomes the gravity of such a Court) and before giving of Sentence, every judge shall deliver his vote or Opinion distinctly, and the Sentence to be according to the plurality of votes, and if there happen to be an equality of votes the President is to have a casting voice. And when Sentence is to be given the President is to pronounce it, and after that the Sentence is pronounced the Provost Martiall shall have warrant to cause execution to be done according to the Sentence. —

39.

At the Generall Court Martialls there shall be a Clarke who shall be sworn to make true and faithfull records of all the proceedings of that Court, and there shall be also such other Officers appointed both for that and also for the Regimentall Court Martialls as shall be necessary and the Generall Court Martiall may appoint and limitt the fees of the Provost Martiall General as they shall thinke fitt. —