

All Nations in peace, finding this a fit place for the same, for which we doe returne his honour hearty thanks, especially that his honour hath been pleased to grant you the privilege for to speak with us here, seeing that the Governour you & we are one, one heart, & one head, for the Covenant that is betwixt the Governour you & we is inviolable, so strong that if the very thunder should break upon the Covenant that in, it would not break it asunder.

We are likewise glad that we have heard you speak, & now we shall answer. If in case any of our Indians should injure any Christians or Indians in your parts, or your Christians or Indians doe any damage to our Indians, we desire that on both sides the matter may be composed, & that which is past be buryed in oblivion.

They say further, that the Seneca were upon their journey to come hither with six hundred men but for feare turned back againe. but we were not afraid to come here, doe give thereupon a drift of beaver & a beaver.

2 dly

We have heard you speak, & now we shall answer unto your propositions. You have said that all which is past formerly shall be buryed & forgot, which we doe likewise, holding our selves innocent of any injury done to any of the Nations, Maryland or Virginia, but have always spoke with one another in friendship & have likewise received many favours, bread & other provisions, for which we humbly thank you. And if any doe accuse us of having done any injury or damage there, they doe belie us, we having been but twice there, doe give thereupon two beavers.

3 dly

If any difference should arise betwixt you, & our Indians & our Indians, we desire that there may not immediately a warre arise upon the same, but that the matter may be moderate & composed betwixt us. And we doe engage you on u parts to give satisfaction to you for any evil that our Indians might happen to doe, & doe give thereupon two beavers.

(4. Hily)