Enemyes, but we promise never to doe the like, doe give one beaver.
Wee doe thank you for the presents given to us, we shall punctually observe that which you have propounded to us, desiring the like upon your side. It is concluded in our Castle, that all the Sachins shall come here the next Summer - about the month of June to make propositions, & it is their earnest desire to see God's journey here, or some other authorized from his Governour: doe give a beaver.

They speak as follows

1 Wee thank you for your sending for us, & for the waggon we had from Schinnerkady hither, though the smallest bit of wampum was sent to us, we doe thank you & our heart is good, doe give a small beaver.

2 Wee doe absolutely approve & confirm the Simon-dowannes answer, for our resolution was taken together, doe give two beavers.

3 They repeat the Answer againe, & shall observe that which is propounded to them, & doe say, we thank kindly that you have buried all former discontents or injuries as we doe the same, & give two lapps.

4 This is the first tyme we have seen any authorized from your Governour, & doe thank you for your propositions, & in case any mischiefes doe happen
