

But doe acknowledgo that we have killed of yo^r Christians & Indians formerly, whereof Jacob Young & my friends was a great occasion thereof, but we desire now that all which is past may be buried in oblivion, & doe make now an absolute Covenant of peace, which we shall binde with a Sacrament, for the Sealing of the same, doe give a beet of thirtie and deep.

2 They doe againe rehearse that Jacob Young was a great leader & Capt. against them, whereby the warre hath been continued. But even as the Governour of Canada had warre with us whereupon a good peace followed, so it is now with us. To which peace we desire that God almighty who dwells in heaven may give his blessing thereto. And suppose that any difference should arise hereafter betwixt us & you & yo^r Indians, we desire that we might give one another Satisfaction, & not imediately to fall in warre, doe give three beavers.

3 We doe lett you know, that there are four four Castles of the Sennecas out a fighting against the Susquehannas. You may therefore warn your Indians that there may be no injuries or damages done hereafter, & so to continue the peace, doe give two beavers.

This is a true copy translated compared & revised by me Robert Livingston ser

Interpreted by M^r
Gerrit Van Richtenhorst

The onneges answer to the propositions made to them the twentieth day of July 1677 by the Hon^{ble} Col Henry Courty authorized by Charles Lord Baron of Baltimore Lord Prop^r of Maryland in the Court house of Albany the one twentieth of July 1677

The names of the Sachins are Iwerisee - who was Speaker Sarcotioa
Samarhyndia
Sanculhard