

They say, we doe absolutely approve of that which the Ouondages have now said, ratting them their flatlings as they doe likewise the Christians of this country, are willing & ready to obey the command of the great King Charles, who liveth over the great lake, meaning our Sovereign Lord the King of great Britaine & doe present a belt of tow.

2. We doe recommend that you will take care (as we shall on our parts) that the propositions you made yesterday be punctually observed. There is formerly some of our Indians wounded by you, which occasioned our plundering of your houses. Wee must also acknowledge that we have taken some hoggs & beasts to eat when we were al hungry, but never to haue killed any Christians doe present two others.

3. We are now come together to make the thordant, & doe against absolutely approve of that which the Ouondages have done; but doe lett you know that there are twenty of our Indians gone out to fight against the Indians of your Nation we desire that if they doe any harm, that it may be imputed their tyme, because it is unpropon to them clud if we for the future after our people are com-pions shall use any hostility that way, then you may thinke we doe not according to our promise, but we are not so in ded, doe give two bevers.

This is a true copy translated compared & revised by me Robert Livingston.

N.B. The Oneidas were present when the propositions were made to the Ouondages & when they gave their answer.

Articles of peace & etruity concluded & agreed upon between the right Honble Sarilie a bholo Lord & Prop^{ty} of the Province of Mary land & Oialon Lord Baron of Baltimore, Culmoungue Emperor of Assawague the sixteenth of June 1668.

(In primis