

Proclamation herof, that they order the Clerks of their respective Counties fairly to transcribe from the Records books an Extract of all such alienations of land or tenements at any time heretofore been entered upon the Records books of the County & as yett not transcribed & remitted to the Secretaries Office and the same alienations so transcribed & extracted to transmit into the Secys Office of this Province by the first day of July next ensuing the date of this Proclamation To the end that the Secy of this Province & his Lordps Receivers gen^l may make out a compleat rent roll for each County and every Clerk that shall refuse to transcribe & transmit such Extract of the Alienations as aforesaid after notice or command given him by the Justices of the County, shall not only lose his Clerkship of the County where he officiates, but shall likewise be liable to all such penalties & fines as the Lawes of this Province in case of such neglects have provided And the Justices of each respective County or any three or more of them are hereby (by & with the advice & consent aforesaid) willed & required to make strict Inquisition whether the Clerks of their respective Counties have (according to the tenor of a certain Act of Assembly made the last Sessions of Assembly & within the time therein limited) fairly transcribed into a book all & singular the Lawes of this Province then in force, as by the said Act they are required And as to whereof under their hands & Seales they are to render unto the Secy Gen^l at or before the last day of the next Provinciale Court which shall be held in Aprill next ensuing To the end that all such Clerks that have been omission & negligent in their office may be proceeded against according to the tenor of the said Act And the Clerks of each respective County are hereby willed & required to transmit unto the Hon^{ble} Thomas Notley & Benjamin Roger Esq^r the Lordps Receivers gen^l by the first day of July next ensuing the date hereof a true & just Extract of all such