

- 3<sup>dly</sup> Forasmuch as the English cannot easily distinguish one Indian from another that no Indian shall come into any Englishmans plantation painted & that all the Indians shall be bound to call aloud beford they come within three hundred paces of any English mans cleared ground & lay downe their armes whether Gunne Bowds or arrows or other Weapons for any English man that shall appere upon his call to take up & in case no one appers that he shall there leave his said armes if he come nearer & that afterwards by calling aloud & endeavour to give notice to the English of his nearer approach & if any English man shall kill any Indian that shall come unpainted & give such notice & deliver up his armes as aforesaid he shall die foritt as well as an Indian that kills an English man & in case the English and Indians meet in the woods accidentally every Indian shall be bound immediately to throw downe his armes upon call & in case any Indian upon call & meeting an English man shall refuse to throw downe his armes upon call he shall be deemed as an Enemy
- 4 - The privileg of Hunting, Crabbing, fowling, & fishing, shall be preferred to the Indians Inviolable -
- 5 - That every Indian that killeth or stealth an hog or Calf or other beast or any other goods shall undergoe the same punishment that an English man doth for the same offence -
- 6<sup>thly</sup> In case any Servant or Slaver run away from their master or Children from their Parents & come to any of the Indians towns within the Territories of Annapolis & there and he subjectt they be bound to apprehend the said fugitive & bring them to the next English plantation to be conveyed to their Mastery & in case any Indian aforesaid shall convey or assist any such fugitives in their flight out of the Province that he shall make their Respective Master or mistresse of such servant or Slave such satisfaction as an English man ought to doe in the like Case -