Wicks, Hofis, Miller
Ewert, Coupl
Rugold D. J. Judge

Upon full hearing of the whole matter and the parties on both sides their severall allegations and witnesses it was considered and ordered by this board that Major Wicks, Mr. Hofis, & Mr. Miller (Mr. Ewert being dead) be turned out of the Commission for Kent County, and that said Wicks, and Hofis now present enter into Recognizance for their good behaviour, and appearance at the Provinciall Court, And that Henry Hofis be summoned to appear before the said Board on the first day of the next Provinciall Court, And that the reasons given by the said Rugold are good & sufficient for his not joyning or refusing to sit with the said Commission, as is complained against him.

Wicks
& Miller
Recogniz:

Accordingly came Major Joseph Wicks, and Mr. Michael Miller and acknowledged themselves each of them to stand in debt unto the R. Hon. the Lord Prop. of this Province in the full and just summe of twenty pounds sterling a piece to be levied on their goods and Chattels lands and tenements to the use and behoof of the said their heirs and Successors upon condition that if they be and should appear before the next Justice of the Peace Court at the next Provinciall Court of this Province wherefore it shall be holden, and in the mean while abate themselves and be of good behaviour as well towards the said Lord Prop. of this Province as to all and singular the good people thereof And this their Recognizance void and of none effect, or else to stand remaine and be in full force power and virtue in Law.
