

Said Carvill made answer that he needed not, for his certain knowledge that his Dep<sup>t</sup> in the Assembly had promised to give so much land as should be allotted for a Crown; His Dep<sup>t</sup> answered that there was nothing in the Act that could oblige My Lord to any such gift, upon which Mr. Carvill said, if My Lord please us we must please him, and had said moreover that the great Court would run the Country down if it was not for him that durst oppose them, and further this Dep<sup>t</sup> saith that Mr. Doyn<sup>e</sup> demanding some Tobacco of Mr. Carvill for fees that were due to the Hon<sup>ble</sup> the Secy<sup>s</sup> the said Carvill said he would pay no more than he was due, and said that there was some things charged to his account contrary to Law, upon which Mr. Doyn<sup>e</sup> told him that if he would not pay them he must take them in Execution, and thereupon the said Carvill dared him to do it, And the said Dep<sup>t</sup> saith that he did believe that the said Carvill was not in his right mind, And further this Dep<sup>t</sup> saith not

Juravit die et Anno Pict
 coram: W<sup>m</sup> Digges

James Bowling (Signed)

Thomas Mudd Depos.
 agt
 Robt Carvill

The Deposition of M<sup>r</sup>. Thomas Mudd taken this 11th of January 1683:

This Dep<sup>t</sup> saith that upon the fourth instant this Dep<sup>t</sup> being at the house of M<sup>r</sup>. Joshua Doyn<sup>e</sup>, there being at that time M<sup>r</sup>. Joseph Pitt, Capt. James Bowling, and Mr. Robert Carvill, that this Dep<sup>t</sup> did there hear the said Carvill say that he remembered that my Lord and God Digges had promised by Assembly that what land of theirs happened to be allotted for Crown lands, they would freely give, and further this Dep<sup>t</sup> saith not

Juravit die et Anno Pict
 coram: W<sup>m</sup> Digges

Thos. Mudd (Signed)

Joseph Pitt Depos.
 agt
 Robt Carvill

The Deposition of M<sup>r</sup>. Joseph Pitt taken this 11th Day of January Anno 1683:

This Dep<sup>t</sup> saith that upon the fourth day instant this Dep<sup>t</sup> being at the house of M<sup>r</sup>. Joshua Doyn<sup>e</sup>, in Company of M<sup>r</sup>. James Bowling, M<sup>r</sup>. Thomas Mudd, & M<sup>r</sup>. Robert Carvill there happened a discourse about the Act for Advancement of Trade, and the said Carvill said that my Lord must give his Land, and it was replied why might not the said Carvill make answer to cause he had promised it,

answer