He acknowledged that altho' instant request & opportunity of Mr Carver he had desired them not to aggravate the evidence, but to make the best of it they could within Self for which he begs pardon, and it is granted him produced by his Self and ordered to be read a Letter from Lord Boyd as follows (viz)

Lord Boyd Sr.
by R. Propst

My Lord

I having recd: your Self and Letter by Mr Robins I find my self encouraged to venture upon such actions as appear needfull though not sufficiently empowered with proper Commissions; which writts this my gratefull acknowledgement that I find a good Master, I was outly disappoint of positive Instruction how farthen to dispose of the wound Mal:factor, and have waited for the result of your Self and Council then promised; for he is now beyond all expectation almost recovered, and in some fearful apprehensions of his doom: the great latitude your Self both given me herein gave me confidence to resolve for soon as he is well to send him over to your Self: believing that he is in many respects to suite best for our Eastern prisons, and where it will be most proper for his great men that shall find himself concerned to apply themselves; I am now glad of this opportunity to show your Self mind herein, in order to which I shall acquaint your Self that presently after my last by Mr Robins, I sent the Indian Moulague to the Indian Court, to acquaint them that we had their Indian in custody whereupon Shalsawab himself with Aquasino and several their great men came to my house, where having prepared Moulague with y^e reason-in behalf of our Nation, gave him Instruction (as submitted what today to him, which after some short Counsel produced his
