Joshua Doyn: of the County of S. Maries being also required to give in his evidence upon oath examined & sworn that some time in the year 1677: he being at Cap: Hindalls house and there sitting by the fire side, the said Hindall: entered into a discourse concerning Col. John Wharton saying that he had been very unkindly dealt with by him, that he had been kept und: & by the Lord Baltimore, the Council, and the said Wharton, and that he dign:ly b:low: if said Wharton had lived longer he the said Hindall should have risen ag: him, but that now the for:going discourse (being delivered by him y: said Hindall in like manner b:for: M: Row at M: Nobbys house) had seared him y: Wharton out of his life.

Joshua Doyn:

Warrant then issued from und: the hand of the Hon: Wm Calvert requiring Cap: Josias Hindall to make his appearance the thursday in y: word said: or:.

Maryland:

Whereas Information hath been made that Cap: Josias Hindall of Charles County within the Province hath uttered divers false malicious and scandalous reports touching his
