

May 28th 1681:

Edward Hild was at y^e house of Henry Turigg. and saw eight Indians go into the house when they were a planting and one of them came and presented a gun at them, and I caused to hold up my head from planting and so him, and he then I down the gun again, and I with the rest went up to them and asked what Indians they were and they said they were Picaone Indians and went away

Signed

Edward Hild.

at the house of Cap. Dawson there came twenty Indians or more all armed and painted and came from into the house and some set down their guns without doors at last one of them started up and said all the Indians was angry. This information by Edward Pindar, William Smithson and Richard Adams.

May 30th 1681:

Tho. Wheeler saw two Indians well armed close by M^r. William Hill's plantation and he stood and viewed them very well and they him and just turned about his head and they were gone.

Signed

Tho. Wheeler

May 30th 1681:

Benjamin Calm is informed that Thomas Sharpin and Charles Hutchins and Edward Fisher was at Nanticoke. Fort and all the Indians except some women and children were gone with their gun skins and moccasins and other truck.

Signed

Benjamin Calm

June 3^d 1681:

Oliver Davis saw 3 or 4 Indians creeping up to William Kidd's house and as soon as he saw them he fired his gun and they run behind a tree and William Kidd came out with his gun but durst not go to them having no more powder and shot but what was in his gun.

The first of June 1681:

John White for four Indians at Stephen Gary's plantation at Transquakin all painted and well armed, he went towards them and they went away.

John White

Major Thomas Taylor informed the board that according to his report on his had made all strict enquiry into y^e nature of the severall complaints daily made by the Inhabitants of Dorchester County grounded upon the fear and jealousy they apprehend from the Indians that in order thereunto he had lately been at the Nanticoke Fort and spoken with the Emperor who

Here