

Int. What do: you with powder and shot bag and horn?
 Ind. kill a Deer: now and then when I can borrow a Gun.
 Int. When you came over there were some more paddlers of you than now are found Ind. We were no: more in Company but us three men, three women and two children with our burdens

Ind. I saw a woman called and required to view the Examinee Declared that she saw him about a month since at Point Look-out with some more Indians being drawn in number in a new boat going over to Nauticok: as they told her

Int. This woman knows you

Ind. She knows me not what Cloth had I:

Wom: a blue Gait and asked the Indians what they had in their baggo and they told me: Lookoon: roots for painting stuff for the Eastern Shore Indians

Quar: of Arthur Thompson then present about what time? Did the Indians make your Canoe?

Thompson: about three weeks since for which he gave a blue Mahkcoat and they went over into Virginia

Wom: I do: verily believe this to be one of the Indians I saw in the boat at point Look-out he had his hair then close cut round only at the edges which made me look very curiously on him, they then pulled a paper out of their baggo and asked me: if I could read, I said yea and told them it was a psalm, where to they answered yea a psalm.

Ind. Kitting called said he saw a blind Indian very like this Examinee among the Nauticok Indians being drawn off from in all about a fortnight since at a war Dance at the Secoy's Quarter

John Haverly called Declared that he saw a one-eyed Indian among those in the Secoy's Nick being in all drawn ~~among~~ of which three boys, they had with them two psalms giving them liberty to read, that he saw them a day or two before the murder was committed and one of them was painted.

Int. Where had you the stockings?

Ind. of one that lived by Cold Springs for whom we had formerly hunted.

Int. Where the hat?

Ind. it was one of Cold Springs Maids hats and she had lost it and my Brother took it up intending when it was inquired for to give it her again

Int. Where the Spoon?

Ind. two of them we have had a great while viz. the women the other they have lately got from whence I know not

Int. Where the Sifter?

Ind. Know not
