

Int. Which two Indians you carried over the bay were those you named, and how know you they touched at y^e Secoy's Land?

Ind. I asked them and they told me, as also that there were two - Nanj-mey Indians with them, Nine went away in the boat and two I set over the bay.

Int. Did not you tell the Secoy that you had the white blanket (which was found with you) out of the Nanjalico Indians boat?

Ind. I said I saw such another in their boat

Int. where had you the spoon?

Ind. On the ~~floor~~ ^{pile} found upon the ground, on: I brought from the Susquehannoh fort, the other I know not it belongs to y^e woman

Int. where the hat?

Ind. Cold Spencer's Maid lost it

Int. where the Stockings?

Ind. have by Cold Spencer of On: Kirk's wife

Int. where the pin cushion?

Ind. at Cap: Jnoallo.

Int. where the apron?

Ind. I have: had it a long time

Int. were you at Cold Spencer's house?

Ind. we: used to go: thither every Day.

Int. You have: been formerly asked who killed the English and you have: said the Nanjalico Indians what say you now?

Ind. I should say: if I should name any I might say May be Nanjalico, May be Simiquos.

Int. why then did you tell y^e Secoy before: that all people they were Nanjalico Indians?

Ind. I said May be Nanjalico Indians
Love Jones again called Declaro that he saw this man the Spaniard in the boat at Point Look-out and gave him a Con: and a Fish, that he was then amongst those Indians then going over to the Eastern shore that he had a blue coat on with pewter buttons and a white edging.

Ind. One of those Nanjalico Indians whom I have named had such a like coat on

The further Examination of the Prisoners together with the evidence is referred to y^e Court when they shall be brought to tryall
And the Council Rises

ALL

Ma