

That being about the 11th May last, employ'd by Capt. Hindall to Mall Jones & Co. for him at the Plantation in Charles County and there working till the fourth of June he did in that time and severall times since he was there said Hindall discourse concerning the Indians and particularly about the family that was cutt off near Point Look-out. He said Hindall did forrall him say that he believed in the Conscience the Papists and Indians joined together, and that the Lord Prop^{ty} nor the Chancellor would not believe any thing as the Indians did do but that my Lord did uphold them in what they did, and he believed my Lord and they together had a mind to destroy all the Protestants or used words and expressions to that very purpose or effect. And this Depo^{nt} faith on Sunday the 26th day of June last Capt. Hindall and his wife went to Capt. Good to a feast being sent for in Capt. Good's boat and came home at Night, that on Tuesday or Wednesday the 29th June Capt. Hindall went over to Coldsp^{er} in one Mr. Hatch's boat, and believes that he called by the way for Capt.
 Good and took him over with him, and Capt. Hindall told this Depo^{nt} that Good damnd and swore so much that he said he could have found in his heart to have thrown him overboard. That this Depo^{nt} having a Designe to the go to the Southward and to carry his family with him he bought a boat of Capt. Hindall for to carry him thither, and Capt.
 Hindall did then very much dissuade this Depo^{nt} from going to the Southward, but this Depo^{nt} said I. You know I have a great charge, a wife and four Children and I cannot gett a piece of land here in Maryland I must go to gett some at the Southward where it is more plenty, to which Hindall reply'd and said John Stay but a little while here, there will be land enough for us all here one of these days, this Depo^{nt} asked him how and Hindall said the King and Parliament in England was at Warre and there was no established Law in England, and so you need not fear land enough here in a short time, but notwithstanding this Depo^{nt} was resolv'd to go and on Saturday the second instant this Depo^{nt} took a note from Capt. Hindall that he had nonesly paid him for his boat and set away with his wife and Children for his intended voyage to the Southward, and the wind proving cross they were driven into Nomony in Virginia, and there went to one Randall Kirk, and Kirk asked us from whence we came, We told him from Capt. Hindall, Kirk told them that Hindall had been over there two or three days before with Capt. Good at Cold Sp^{er}, and that their business there was to advise with Cold Sp^{er} what they should do in the business, for that the Papists and Indians were joined together, and told the Depo^{nt} and his wife also that Capt. Hindall had desired help of Cold Sp^{er}, that Hindall might bring his wife and family thither, but that Madam Sp^{er} was unwilling to let them come thither because she was unwilling to disobey My Lord Prop^{ty} or words to that effect, that they staid there one Night and came from thence on Sunday after Dinner and then went to Cold Sp^{er} Point and laid there Sunday

Night
