Cap. Findall deny'd the charge and pray'd the testimony of Cold Spring concerning what is alledg'd against him that he should say at his house, that he ought not to be given to the Defendant he being an infamous person and hath been whipp'd in Virginia for Thieving and stealing Cash.

The further hearing and Examination thereof is referred till next Council Day and Cap. Findall remanded into the custody of Cold Spring Darnall to remain under a guard at his house at Mattapony.

Cap. John Godd then called to whom the foregoing Disposition of John Bright was again read as also the following Disposition of Col. Mackenzie viz

The 7th Day of May 1681. at the house of Mr. Thomas Blakiston. John Godd said to me what Dwell n: do you trouble your self with land, there is never a Capint in Maryland will have one foot of land within the next four months, and that the Simiquio Indians would do us no good for he had ten thousand men at command when he pleased and that he could make it high water when he pleased. And further saith not.
