

(212)

A Council held at the City of St. Maries the one and twenty day of July Anno Domini 1681.

The Hon. the Lord Prop.^r

Philip Calvert Esq^r Chamberlⁿ

William Calvert Esq^r Secy

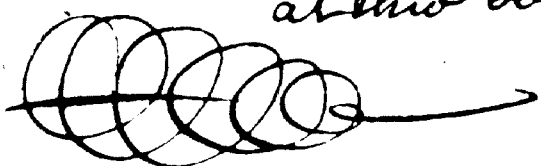

John Hoskins of St. Maries County according to summons from his L^{ty} to him formerly directed made his appearance at this board Who was charged with saying in some Company that if he had said half so much as Cap. Godd had said he would run away too, and being required to testify upon oath what it was Cap.
Godd should say to cause those expressions to come from him being sweary sworn saith that possibly in drink such or the like words might by him be spoken, but that Godd should speak any thing moving him thereunto he knowed not, being sometimes apt to talk at random in drink and speak what he came give no Account of.

William Hodgson according to order of this board the last Council Day made his appearance and having taken his oath upon the holy Evangelist saith that being up at a half past at Mr. Rumsey in Company with Simon Stacy and others he told Stacy that he heard he had stored in his house, to w^{ch} Stacy replied he was afraid of the Indians for that Mr. Tyrling had reported My Lord had furnished them with powder and shot, And that he called Thomas Lawson, and Richard Thomas to witness that Mr. Rumsey heard Mr. Tyrling say so.
Simon Stacy called Dnyed that he ever said any such thing of Mr. Tyrling

Thomas Lawson called Dnyed that he would strive to witness any such thing or that he heard any such thing said Richard Thomas saith that he heard Mr. Rumsey say that Mr. Tyrling should say My Lord had furnished the Indians with powder and shot.

James Rumsey then called saith that having formerly heard the Report of this L^{ty} furnishing the Indians with powder and shot and being on Day at Church before it began it was the generall discourse amongst the people there that My Lord had put the Indians have powder and shot, and that Mr. Tyrling amongst the rest said he heard so too but could not give any credit to it

Mr. Tyrling is Discharged from his Recognizance taken last Council Day and from his further appearance at this board. upon this occasion

M