229

Talbott &c:

August 4th: Anno 1681:

The Deposition of Peter Dodd and John Robson taken at the house of Coll Philemon Lloyd

Peter Dodd aged about 40 yeares and John Robson aged about thirty yeares Sworne and examined Say that about the tenth Day of June they did see about Noon or two of the Clock (as they judge) to be Indians in a Canoo passing towards Choptank Island, these Deponents being in a Canoo likewise, and these Deponents did hayle the Indians Canoo, intending to know what they were, and they answered not but did thereupon turne their Canoo a contrary way towards Cook's Point and so these Deponents could not speake with them, but they these Deponents did see them afterwards bend their course towards Choptank Island, And further your Deponents Say not

Sworne before me the Day and yeare above written

Vincent Lowe

Phi Lloyd.

Edw Hadaway aged 29 yeares or thereabouts sworne and examined on August the 6th 1681:

Says that about the 12th of June last 16 Indians came down Choptank River, and came to the Deponents house, and enquired of them whence they came and whither they were bound, they told him they came from Tequassimos town and were bound over the bay to John Watkins, your Deponent asked them when they intended to returne, they answered when the Corne came, but about Sixteen Dayes after eight of them returned, Robin Hood Tequassimos Sonn being One of them, Your Deponent asked the reason of their so sudden returne Robin Hood made answer that they heard that the Iminiques were come down and had killed some Indians on the Western shore, your Deponent asked if any English were killed, they replyed there were Six killed at Pettuxon they thought by Iminiques and further Saith not

Signum

Edw P Hadaway

Sworne before me the Day and yeare above written

Vincent Lowe

Phi Lloyd.

King Tequassino, Hatsawaps Speaker and Mattapony Speaker Examined at Mr Thomas Vaughans house August the Sixth 1681: by Coll Vincent Lowe and Coll Philemon Lloyd Empowered thereunto by his Lopps Speciall Commission

Thus