[illegible] Discovery found about Sir Jeffery Maguer and the rest of the [illegible] Forreyn Nations.
Jacob Young further [illegible] that from the discourse he had with the Indians [illegible] there he gathered that they were afraid of being cutt [illegible] at Albany by the Right Iuniquos, and therefore intended to strengthen themselves as much as they could with other Nations for that they would suddenly quarrell with the Iuniquos.
Jacob Young ffor Demands of them what number they may consist of and how many Sinqua:s ahamoks amongst them They answer they are in all four ffolds (viz:t) Anondagoes who consist of three hundred Men, Onneydes neere One hundred and Eighty, Quiagoes three hundred, Mohawks att Maqua:s at Iroqh three hundred, and amongst these four Nations are some Sinqua:s ahamoks but how many they cannot tell, Some are amongst the right Iuniquos they believe there they abide, that they might make about a hundred fighting men, their are fourteen Sinqua:s ahamoks with the Onneydes, Sworn with the Anondagoes but the chiefe of them are among the Quiagoes, They likewise say that another Nation called the black Mingoes are joined with the Simondowanes who are the right Iuniquos that they were informed by some New York Indians when they met of they were coming downe they told them that the black Mingoes in their way coming to the Iuniquos were pursued by some Southern Indians fell upon and routed Severall of them slew and some like the Iuniquos came into their retreate

At a Council held at Albany the 24th Day of March 1681

Present as Yesterday

His Hon:r had Conference with the King of Choptico and Wi[illegible] one of the great Men by themselves, and afterwards with the King of Matchumoncan and Jackanapes an Indian belonging to him who had formerly been taken prisoner by the Northern Indians and made his escape, and first with the Choptico Indians

Majo:r Beaverman Interpr:r

Ind: His Hon:r hearing that the Choptico Indians had quitted their Towne had sent for them to know the reason.
Ind: The Pascattoway Indians bid them serve themselves Int: Why for: did the Pascattoways do so:?
Ind: The Pascattoway's had formerly killed bid them serve themselves for that the Iuniquos would come and cutt them off Int: His Hon:r has been informed that One of the Choptico Indians being lately
