To the Rt: Hon:ble Charles absolute Lord & Propr: &c
of this Province
The humble Petition of Elizabeth Withington
Prisonr

Most humbly Sheweth

That your Petitionr was Judicially arraigned, and convicted before your Lpp Justices of ye Prov: Court for the felonious taking of several goods belonging to Mr: Brown and Mr: Scott and now lyes under the just sentence of the Law. Your Petr hath nothing to alledge for her justification, nor any other foundation to ground the hopes of her life on, but your Lpp abundant goodness and mercy, which she doth most humbly begg your Lpp to extend to her in ye pardoning her crime and granting her life.

And as in Duty bound she shall pray &c:

His Lpp grants the prayr of the Petitionr and ordrs pardon to be drawn accordingly.

To Benjamin Randall a petitioning &c

To the Rt: Hon:ble the Lord Propr: & his Hon:ble Council
The humble Petition of Benj Randall of Kent County

humbly Sheweth

That whereas your Petitionr hath been permitted to practice as an Attorney in your Lpps County Court of Kent County in wch employmt he hath well and honestly behaved and demeaned himself, notwithstanding which the Commissionrs of the said County have denyed your Petitionr the liberty of pleading without any just cause shewn for the same: both the crime of your Petitionr being never culpable or convicted of any crime wch might debarr him of the liberty of a Subject

Your Petitionr doth humbly begg your Lpp ord and lycence to plead in the said County Court unlesse he shall be legally convicted of any crime that may disable him from such practice, and your Petitionr shall be ready to make his own defence

And he shall pray &c:

The result whereof ifound in the following ord: of this Board viz

Mary Land ss:

By the Lord Propr: & Council

Ordered that Benjamin Randall of Kent County may practice as an Attorney in the County Court of the sd County unlesse such time as the Commissionrs of the said County shall make appear to his Lpp and Council upon just grounds any reason to the contrary: any former ord: of the said Court to the contrary notwithstanding
