Jnt:- What other discourse in relation to publick affaires have you had at any time with Capt. Hyndace?

Answ: I cannot Remember any?

Ordered that James Beamont Enter into Recogn: &c: at the Secrys Office for his appearance at the next Gen: Court

Jnt: Thomas Humphrys what have you heard Capt: Hyndall say concerning warre betweene King and Parliament in England?

Answ: Never any thing I have not been familiar at any time with him as to hear him say any such thing

Jnt: Did you not hear him say that it was not safe to say any thing?

Answ: Never It is probable that I may have been some time in the Room when Capt. Hyndall has been in discourse but never to stay so long as to take notice of what he said I never had that familiarity with him. —

Jnt: Did not Capt: Hyndall say that my Lord was a Traytour and the people fooles if they paid any tax? —

Answ: I never heard him

Jnt: What men were those that Samuel Hyndall went to fetch over out of Virginia, when his Brother was taken?

Answ: When Capt: Hyndall was taken, I went with Madam Hyndall over the River to Nolley Hall, and when we returned — Samuel Hyndall was gone and as I since understand into Virg: but wherefore or upon what Acct I know not —

Jnt: Samuel Hyndall Upon what Acct were you sent into Virginia?

Answ: — I was not sent at all but went of my own accord.

Jnt: — What Men did you gett there?

Answ — I went for none, I went to gett a Shallop Built

Jnt: — for what occasion? what business had you for a Shallop?

Answ: — to fetch out to Shipps

Jnt — What made you tell Geo: Godfrey that he need not be sent not a Shipp of his Head should be touch'd

Answ: — No such thing I have not seen Geo: Godfrey this two years, it was generally reported that my Brother had accused Geo: Godfrey and at his request I did indeed say a Church that the report was false, that my Brother never said any thing against Geo: Godfrey, and that he would justify

Capt Hyndall — Being ordered by Collonell Chandler to guard Samuel Hyndall down we had some discourse together upon the way and he told me that when William Boyden came down to Mad: Hyndall to inquire of Capt Hyndall, Madam said Boyden there is no need to fear we have fourty men ready at his Service
