

Evidence appearing against her upon Tryal to prove Matter of fact; the tender care she took of the Child in wrapping it in clean Linen, nothing of Violence offered appearing about it; with other Circumstances induces this Board to think that it was Shame more than Guilt caused her to conceal the matter, and therefore this Board humbly recommend her to his Majestys Mercy and may his Pleasure therein may be signified to this Board

Ordered also that an Address be drawn up to their Majesties & enclosed in the said Letter intimating the Suspension of M^r. James Trisby and the Reasons why his Excellency has not thought convenient to admit of him at this Board, setting forth also the insolent rude Behaviour and Deportment of Peregrine and John Browne Masters of Ships, the former related to the said Trisby by Marriage, and both it is humbly conceived set to Work and countenanced by the said Trisby
