

with other expressions a little while after came in Mr Moreene & immediately he said. Keech I have one question more to ask you. I ask ^{him} what that was saying that Reason had you to drink Coll^r Clarke's health in a way to Perdue me indeed Coll^r. I do not Remember such a thing done by me with God damn you here is one in our company will own it to your Face well if it was so I hope it is no treason my wife standing by hearing of him charge me she was a going to tell him that — Mr Moreene was the first as was heard to say so immediately he rose up & called me pitiful. Shillien puppy Dog & that he had made us all men with his fist at my nose. I did not know but he would have injured me Whereupon I did hit him he askt me to go out & there with much ill Language with his fist at my Face again I hit him two Blows of the Face again in vindication of my self he told me he would fight me with his Sword I told him I had no sword about him in we went & sat down again my said Coll^r Askey told me who gave the abuses here indeed said Mr Askey you abused. Keech the Coll^r said God damn you you pitiful. Shillien Dog whereupon Mr Askey went his way & I went home with my wife and further with not Given under my hand
